1. SMITH'S BITE SIZE THEATRE

Hello all

Hope you'll forgive this unscheduled extra edition of Footlights.

I've been asked to let you all know that the date for the latest Smith's Bite Size Theatre, as featured in Dates For Your Diary, has been changed.

Death at the Theatre – Smiths 1st Murder Mystery Evening – is now on Wednesday 30 May at 7pm.

I'm personally really pleased by this, I wanted to go but it was originally scheduled smack in the middle of Macbeth so I couldn't go. Well now I can!

It sounds like it should be a great evening and the perfect way to unwind after our Shakespearean adventure. I've booked my seat. It'd be great to share a table with some friends from Barton too.

My source tells me that the evening is already selling out fast so Book Now! The booking information is below
